REAL OR FAKE? 2

More Far-Out Fibs, Fishy Facts, and Phony Photos to Test for the Truth

Can you detect a hoax from the real deal? See right through photo trickery? Spot the phony logic in a story in seconds? Put your sleuthing skills to work in this fun book! See if you can find the truth behind bizarre stories, faulty facts, iffy lists, news headlines, and more. Does the world's largest mushroom (a humongous fungus!) really cover a space the size of 1,665 football fields? Did people really once pay a "knocker-up" to bang on their window each morning as an early version of the alarm clock? Check the Fib-o-Meter to find out! Complete with incredible photos and quirky collage art, this is another Nat Geo Kids book you will have to read to believe ... or disbelieve!

EMILY KRIEGER is a Seattle-based writer, editor, and fact-checker specializing in science and children's nonfiction. She has fact-checked the capital of Kyrgyzstan and other countries for the National Geographic Bee; amassed amazing tidbits about bugs, birds, and brains for 5,000 Awesome Facts (About Everything!); interviewed scientists about Bigfoot and George Washington's dentures for the book Myths Busted!—in May 2014, named the Children's Choice Book Awards best book in the 5th/6th grade category—and pondered alien and ancient life while editing Science News for Kids.

EXPLORER FIELD GUIDES

Explore! Laugh! Climb! Dig! This isn't your grandmother's dusty ol' field guide. The field guides feature pages packed not only with the facts, figures, and pertinent information about each animal or object, but also include background, fun facts, weird but true nuggets, and activity prompts to inspire curious minds. After reading these books, kids will be excited to get outside and experience everything the natural world has to offer, right in their own backyard.

ULTIMATE EXPLORER FIELD GUIDE: INSECTS

Find Adventure! Go Outside! Have Fun! Be a Backyard Insect Inspector!

This fun, photo-filled, and fact-packed guide to insects will make kids stop and look for all kinds of these crawling and flying creatures right in their own backyards. From bees to beetles, walking sticks to inchworms, kids will learn how, where, and when to spot these animals all over the United States (and how to keep a safe distance when necessary). With tons of info and interactivity prompts, it's the perfect companion for backyard or field trips, camping or vacation. Durable and portable, it's just right for your pocket or backpack!

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS UNITED STATES ATLAS, FIFTH EDITION

Kid will have fun learning about the United States in this amazing atlas, packed with maps, pictures, facts, and fun. National Geographic's world-renowned cartographers have paired up with education experts to create maps of all 50 states, U.S. territories, and Washington, D.C. Maps pinpoint the physical features, capitals, and other towns and cities of each state. Kids will also discover the latest data and trends along with colorful photography of each state and the Americans who live there. Key points reflect the latest information about land and water, and people and places. Lively essays cover each region of the country. Eight specially themed maps on nature, population, energy, and more delve deeper into key issues. This is a great reference for home and school with all the basics kids need to know to succeed in middle school, high school, and beyond.

National Geographic is a recognized authority in mapping excellence and has helped spread geographic knowledge to people around the world. A multimillion-dollar database allows National Geographic to combine the latest data gained by space-age technology with innovative digital mapping techniques to create state-of-the-art political, physical, and thematic maps. Meticulous research and attention to detail have established a standard of achievement that is second to none.

CHOMP!

Fierce Facts About the Bite Force, Crushing Jaws, and Mighty Teeth of Earth's Champion Chewers

National Geographic Explorer and snake wrangler Dr. Brady Barr has been bitten by a lot of creatures over the years. So this book is born from first hand—er, tooth—experience of getting up close to some of the biggest biters in the animal kingdom. It turns out there's a lot more to biting than meets the eye. From the shape, size, and strength of a tooth to the structure of the jaw, how (and when and why) an animal bites reveal much about the animal itself. Chomp! highlights an array of awesome animals with a diversity of chomp styles—from shredders to crushers to grinders. Then it shows how tooth type, bite force, jaw shape, and food source all come together to make each an incredible member of the animal bite force!

During his career, herpetologist DR. BRADY BARR has traveled to five continents, worked with hundreds of scientists, suffered from dozens of bruises, and escaped some very close calls while working with some of the world's wildest and most dangerous creatures. He is a Resident Explorer with National Geographic and has many books, articles, and television shows to his credit, including Nat Geo WILD's Dangerous Encounters and The Brady Barr Experience and National Geographic chapter books Scrapes With Snakes and Crocodile Encounters.

DINO RECORDS

The Most Amazing Prehistoric Creatures to Have Ever Lived on Earth

Curious which creatures ruled when dinosaurs roamed the Earth? Get ready to meet the record-setters: biggest, smallest, weirdest, AND the most mysterious, notorious, and deadly dinosaurs of all time. You'll find fantastic firsts, including the first dinosaur fossils found and the first dinos in space. And you'll meet other rad, remarkable creatures that lived before, after, and alongside them. Did you know that the largest fish, the largest turtle, and the largest flying animal that ever existed lived during the time of the dinosaurs? Or that mammals—no bigger than a small dog when dinosaurs roamed—eventually evolved into massive land animals? See who wins in head-to-head species smackdowns and enjoy games that complement the records.

DON'T READ THIS BOOK BEFORE BED

Thrills, Chills, and Hauntingly True Stories

Love a good scary story? Like to solve mysteries? Brave enough to hear the truth about some pretty frightening phenomena? Then cuddle up with this spooky spine-tickler, filled with delightfully frightful true stories of doomed domains, real-life monsters, menacing mysteries, and so much more. Meet ghosts, ghouls, and aliens. Go inside hidden graveyards and deadly secret passages. This book will have you sleeping with a night light for sure. Read if you dare, but don't say we didn't warn you!

ANNA CLAYBOURNE is the author of numerous books on the natural world for younger readers, including the popular 100 series (100 Scariest Things on the Planet, 100 Most Awesome Things on the Planet, 100 Most Dangerous Things on the Planet, etc.), the Usborne Internet-Linked Encyclopedia of Planet Earth, Cheetah: Natural World Series, the Survival Skills Handbook, and many more. She started her career as a trainee staff writer, and later became a freelance writer and editor. She writes on almost any subject but specializes in science and nature, and has written many children's books on wild animals (especially predators), volcanoes, earthquakes, and other natural disasters.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN?

Serious Answers to Silly Questions

What would happen if everyone in the world jumped at the same time, if humans could fly, or if you could dig a hole through to the center of the Earth? This cool book explores all kinds of scenarios that would or could happen if the world was just a slightly different place. Of course, the results are hilarious and mind-blowing! Each scenario is examined with real scientific, historical, and cultural facts in mind. This out-of-the-box book encourages readers to cultivate a better understanding of the world as it is—and could be!

CRISPIN BOYER lives in Xcalak, a small fishing village in Mexico, where he writes about history, wildlife, and technology. He and his wife live on the Caribbean coast with their flock of hens, a turkey, two roosters, and a guard goose. His 2013 cover story for National Geographic Kids magazine, "Return of the Missing Lynx," won an Eddie Award for Best Single Article, Youth/Teen. The American Library Association chose his book This or That? as one of 2015's top picks for reluctant young-adult readers.

WEIRD BUT TRUE

Bursting onto the book scene in late 2009, Weird But True paperbacks—with a distinct colorful design, whimsical typography, and square shape—became instant blockbusters. Now with eight Weird But True paperbacks in the marketplace, plus three editions of Ultimate Weird But True, five subject-specific books, a journal, a doodle book, boxed sets, and a weird current events spin-off, the Weird But True series has nearly four million copies in print. Conceived as a monthly page in National Geographic Kids magazine in 2004, “Weird But True” has been the most popular feature every month since its inception.

WEIRD BUT TRUE HUMAN BODY

300 Outrageous Facts About Our Awesome Anatomy

Get ready to have your mind blown with some hair-raising, eye-popping facts! This latest addition to the crazy popular Weird But True series is all about YOU! It's an exciting internal journey through your own wacky, weird, sometimes gross, but always fascinating human body. Did you know that your stomach is shaped like the letter J? Or that if you lined up all your blood vessels they'd circle the Earth twice? Or that your body gives off a light you can't see? From your head to your toes, you'll be surprised and amazed by what you discover.

WEIRD BUT TRUE KNOW-IT-ALL: U.S. PRESIDENTS

What's so weird about U.S. presidents? Plenty! Did you know that Abraham Lincoln was a great wrestler? That Ulysses S. Grant got a speeding ticket riding his horse—twice! Or that Benjamin Harrison was afraid of electricity? And let's not forget that President McKinley had a pet parrot that whistled “Yankee Doodle Dandy” duets with him! Despite their silly moments and curious talents, they all achieved great things! In this new single-subject Weird But True book, you'll have a blast learning that there's a lot of substance—and weirdness—in every president's past.

BRIANNA DUMONT is author of the Changed History series, which makes history come alive by exposing its murky underbelly. The first book in the series, Famous Phonies: Legends, Fakes and Frauds Who Changed History, includes gems about “I-must-not-tell-a-lie” George Washington and school-less Shakespeare. When she's not writing quirky books, DuMont travels the world in search of great museums and historical sites. At home, she is a full-time writer and researcher who is quickly becoming best friends with her local librarian. She and her family live in Chicago, IL.

ABE VS. JEFF

The Civil War as Seen From Both Sides

The Civil War is skillfully deconstructed in this wonderfully illustrated book by award-winning author/illustrator Rosalyn Schanzer. Abe vs. Jeff, an epic face-off between Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis, examines the roots of the conflict that nearly tore our young nation apart.

ROSALYN SCHANZER is the award-winning author and illustrator of 16 books for young people, including How We Crossed the West, which garnered starred reviews from both Publishers Weekly and School Library Journal, and George vs. George: The American Revolution as Seen From Both Sides, an ALA Notable Book, SLJ Book of the Year, NYPL 100 Titles for Reading and Sharing, and Orbis Pictus Recommended book. She was awarded the gold medal from the Society of Illustrators and a Robert F. Sibert Honor Medal for her book Witches.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN'S WISE WORDS

Discover history through the eyes of one of the smartest, funniest, and coolest figures from America's past. This book presents 50 of Benjamin Franklin's famous "wise words" from Poor Richard's Almanack, Franklin's personal letters, and other writings, with sage advice on everything from good citizenship and manners to friendship and being happy. Sayings are paired with hilarious illustrations and witty translations for modern audiences. It's a great go-to for inspirational and innovative ways to practice mindfulness, industriousness, and self-improvement.

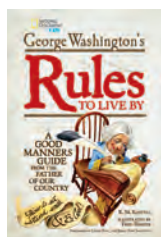

Award-winning author K. M. KOSTYAL has written nearly 20 books on history, music, world cultures, and wars. Her most recent works for National Geographic include Founding Fathers: The Fight for Freedom and the Birth of American Liberty, George Washington's Rules to Live By, Christmas in Williamsburg, Lost Boy, Lost Girl: Escaping Civil War in Sudan, and Great Migrations, the companion book to the National Geographic Channel's acclaimed series on animal migration.

THE MARCH AGAINST FEAR

The Last Great Walk of the Civil Rights Movement and the Emergence of Black Power

James Meredith's 1966 march in Mississippi began as one man's peaceful protest for voter registration and became one of the South's most important demonstrations of the civil rights movement. The retelling of Meredith's story opens on the day of his assassination attempt and goes back in time to recount the moments leading up to that event and its aftermath. Readers learn about the powerful figures and emerging leaders who joined the 200+ mile walk that became known as the "March Against Fear," such as Martin Luther King, Jr., and Stokely Carmichael, who formed an unlikely alliance that resulted in the Black Power movement, which ushered in a new era in the fight for equality. Thoughtfully presented by award-winning author Ann Bausum, this book helps readers understand the complex issues of fear, injustice, and the challenges of change. It is a history lesson that's as important and relevant today as it was 50 years ago.

ANN BAUSUM is an award-winning children's book author whose painstaking research, eye for just the right illustration, and compelling narrative connects readers with our nation's past and the echo of history in current events. Bausum has written ten books for National Geographic including Marching to the Mountaintop, Denied, Detained, Deported: Stories From the Dark Side of American Immigration, Freedom Riders: John Lewis and Jim Zwerg on the Front Lines of the Civil Rights Movement, which was a Sibert Honor Book, and With Courage and Cloth: Winning the Fight for a Woman's Right to Vote, winner of the Jane Addams Award. MOTOR GIRLS

How Women Took the Wheel and Drove Boldly Into the Twentieth Century

Come along for a joy ride in this enthralling tribute to the daring women—Motor Girls, as they were called at the turn of the century—who got behind the wheel and paved the way for change. The automobile has always symbolized freedom, and in this book we meet the first generation of female motorists who drove cars for fun, profit, and to make a statement about the evolving role of women. From the advent of the auto in the 1890s to the 1920s, when the breaking down of barriers for women was in full swing, readers will be delighted to see historical photos, art, and artifacts and to discover the many ways these progressive females influenced fashion, the economy, politics, and the world around them.

SUE MACY's previous book for National Geographic, Wheels of Change: How Women Rode the Bicycle to Freedom, was named to numerous best books lists, including Amelia Bloomer, NCSS Notable, Booklist Top 10 Sports Books for Youth, and SLJ's 100 Magnificent Children's Books of 2011. Several of her other books with National Geographic also feature historic women, including Bylines: A Photobiography of Nellie Bly and Bull's-Eye: A Photobiography of Annie Oakley.

SHACKLES FROM THE DEEP

Tracing the Path of a Sunken Slave Ship, a Bitter Past, and a Rich Legacy

A pile of lime-encrusted shackles discovered on the seafloor lands Michael Cottman, a Washington, D.C.-based journalist and avid scuba diver, in the middle of an amazing journey that stretches across three continents, from foundries and tombs in England, to slave ports on the shores of West Africa, to present-day Caribbean plantations. This is more than just the story of one ship—it's the untold story of millions of people taken as captives to the New World. Told from the author's perspective, this book introduces young readers to the wonders of diving, detective work, and discovery, while shedding light on the history of slavery.

MICHAEL H. COTTMAN, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist and author, is a former political reporter for the Washington Post. Cottman has appeared on National Public Radio's "Tell Me More" with Michel Martin and also the Oprah Winfrey Show in 2000 to discuss his (adult) book The Wreck of the Henrietta Marie. Cottman also serves as a special consultant to the National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) for a national, multimedia project, "Voyage to Discovery," an education initiative that focuses on the African-American contribution to the maritime industry spanning 300 years and efforts to teach students of color about careers in marine biology and oceanography.

ANIMAL ARK

Celebrating our Wild World in Poetry and Pictures

A howling wolf, a stalking tiger, a playful panda, a dancing bird—celebrate the beauty, diversity, and fragility of the animal world in this lush picture book that pairs the stunning photography of National Geographic photographer Joel Sartore with the delicate mix of poetry and prose of Newbery Award—winning author Kwame Alexander. Featuring more than 40 unique animal portraits, the pages invite kids to explore each creature's markings, textures, and attributes in stunning detail, while calling on all of us to enjoy and help protect each and every one. Three picture-packed gatefolds inside showcase even more familiar and exotic species. These images are part of Sartore's lifelong project to photograph every captive animal species in the world, with special attention given to saving endangered species.

KWAME ALEXANDER is a poet, educator, and New York Times best-selling author of 21 books, including The Crossover, which received the 2015 John Newbery Medal for the Most Distinguished Contribution to American Literature for Children. His other recent works include Booked, Surf's Up, and He Said, She Said. He is the founder of Book-in-a-Day, a student-run publishing program that has created more than 3,000 student authors in 75 schools, and LEAP for Ghana, an international literacy project that builds libraries, trains teachers, and empowers children through literature. In 2015, Kwame served as Bank Street College of Education's first writer-in-residence.

Joel Sartore is the founder of the Photo Ark, and a photographer, speaker, author, teacher, conservationist, National Geographic Fellow, and regular contributor to National Geographic magazine. In addition to the work he has done for National Geographic, Joel has contributed to Audubon, Geo, Sports Illustrated, the New York Times, the Smithsonian magazine, and numerous book projects.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS LEVELLED READERS

This high-interest, educationally vetted series of beginning readers features the magnificent images of National Geographic accompanied by texts written by experienced, skilled children's book authors. Text is written to maximize reading success and interest. Each book includes a letter from a reading education expert that presents to parents, teachers, and librarians the value of nonfiction reading. Levels from Pre-Reader to Level 3 are clearly marked on front covers with brief explanations of skill levels on back covers.

LEVELS

Pre-reader

Pre-reader

Ready to read: high-interest topics and content vocabulary for kids who are ready to read.

LEVEL 1

Level 1

Starting to read: decodable texts for kids who are beginning to read on their own.

Level 2

Reading independently: approachable texts for kids who are ready for longer sentences and more complex vocabulary. New words are defined on the page, but occasional adult help might be welcome.

LEVEL 3

Level 3

Fluent reader: robust yet accessible texts for kids who are reading on their own with ease and are ready for more challenging vocabulary and varied sentence structure.

Co-reader

A perfect shared reading experience between kids who are beginning to read on their own and an older reader or parent.

OUR COUNTRY'S PRESIDENTS

A Complete Encyclopedia of the U.S. Presidency

National Geographic presents the 44 individuals who have led the U.S., plus America's newest commander in chief, in this up-to-date, authoritative, and lavishly illustrated family, school, and library reference. It features comprehensive profiles of the 44 former presidents along with timelines and descriptions of crucial events during their terms. Thematic spreads cover a variety of topics, from the history of voting rights to writing a presidential letter. Full-page portraits, famous quotes, and fascinating facts help kids get to know each leader. A profile of the 2016 President-elect is also included.

ANN BAUSUM grew up with a love of research and American history. She is a multi-award-winning author, including the Orbis Pictus Recommended List, Book Links Best Books for the Classroom, Booklist Editor's Choice Top of the List Nonfiction, Notable Social Studies Trade Book of the Year, ALA Best Books for Young Adults, ALA Notable Books for Children, New York Public Library 100 Titles for Reading and Sharing, School Library Journal Best Book of the Year, a Golden Kite Award for Nonfiction, and more.

THIS BOOK STINKS!

Gross Garbage, Rotten Rubbish, and the Science of Trash

Get up close and personal with our wonderful world of waste, from composting and recycling to landfills and dumps to how creative people are finding new ways to reuse rubbish. It's fun to talk trash when it's jam-packed with infographics, thematic spreads, wow-worthy photos, sidebars, serious stats, and fabulous facts. Also included are quizzes and activities to inspire kids to take action, be proactive, and rethink the things we throw away.

SARAH WASSNER FLYNN loves writing, running, and triathalons. When she's not writing about races, she's usually training or competing in one. She also writes nonfiction books and articles for kids and teens, like the National Geographic Kids National Parks Guide U.S.A. and The Girl's Life Guide to Being the Most Amazing You.

YOU CAN BE A PALEONTOLOGIST!

Discovering Dinosaurs With Dr. Scott

Ever wondered how to find a dinosaur? Paleontologist Dr. Scott Sampson, host of Dinosaur Train on PBS Kids, tells kids how! How do paleontologists find dinosaur bones? How do they know what dinosaurs ate or looked like? And what is paleontology, anyway? Dr. Scott tackles all these questions and more while inspiring kids to go out and make the next big dino discovery!

SCOTT D. SAMPSON is a dinosaur paleontologist, science communicator, and nonprofit executive. He serves as president and CEO of Science World at Telus World of Science in Vancouver, British Columbia. Most of Sampson's scientific research has focused on the ecology and evolution of Late Cretaceous dinosaurs. Sampson was the primary scientific consultant and on-air host of the four-part Discovery Channel series Dinosaur Planet, and today he is known to millions of children and parents around the world as "Dr. Scott the Paleontologist," host of the hit PBS Kids television series Dinosaur Train. Sampson is also the author of Dinosaur Odyssey: Fossil Threads in the Web of Life (University of California, 2009) and How to Raise a Wild Child: The Art and Science of Falling in Love With Nature (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, 2015).

HOLIDAYS AROUND THE WORLD SERIES

Dazzling photographs and lively text introduce children to a varied selection of religious and cultural holidays, presented from a global perspective. A consultant's note to parents and teachers places the holiday in its religious and cultural context, complementing the brief, informative text of each title. The informative back matter section provides students with "who," "what," and "when" bullet points about each holiday, along with fascinating games, maps, songs, recipes and further resources.

Schools & Libraries

Librarians and other educators can request our latest catalog for School & Public Libraries by calling

1-877-873-6846. Visit the National Geographic

Children's Books website for additional information and special library offers: www.ngchildrensbooks.org.

National Geographic Books are also available through your regular wholesaler.

Catalog entries list the suggested cover price.

The suggested cover price will be printed on the jackets of the books listed in this catalog. Booksellers and wholesalers will purchase books from Penguin Random House, Inc. at the suggested catalog retail price less their earned discounts. All resellers are free to charge any prices they choose for books. All trim sizes, page counts, months of publication, and publisher's suggested catalog retail and cover prices shown in this catalog should be considered tentative and subject to change without notice. Orders are subject to acceptance and availability.

Returns

Returns should be sent to:

Penguin Random House, Inc.
