DEAR READERS,

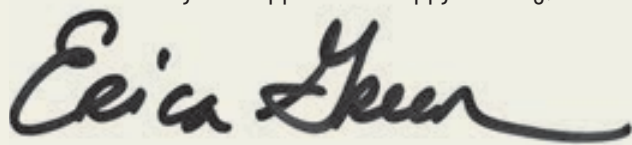

I'm thrilled to present our National Geographic Kids Fall 2017 list. We are proud to be the only publisher with one of the world's premier scientific, educational, and research organizations at the core of everything we do. Our goal is to create books for children that spark their curiosity and inspire them to care about our planet. To do this, we rely on our proven formula of facts, photos, and fun! There could be no better example of this than our blockbuster Weird But True franchise, now more than 25 books strong. This season we've amped up the fun with the very festive Weird But True Christmas. If 300 wacky facts aren't enough, not to worry, kids will be fascinated by 1,000 Facts About the White House, an inside tour of America's most famous residence.

We travel the globe and travel through time in two exciting new books. History's Mysteries investigates cold cases and puzzles from the past. Then, roaring onto shelves this season is the second edition of our bestselling Ultimate Dinopedia with updated scientific information and thirty new dinosaurs, many of which were discovered by our own National Geographic explorers.

From dinosaur facts to hands-on science, we've got something STEM-related for everyone. In How Things Work: Inside Out! we take apart and look inside all kinds of familiar and far-out items. For those who want to find the perfect science fair project or like to tinker, we've got fifty experiments in Try This! Extreme. Of course, we wouldn't be National Geographic without amazing animal photos. Hey, Baby! is a magnificent treasury of meltingly cute animal images paired with lyrical text, poems, and more. It's perfect both for quiet read-alone time and cuddling up together at story time.

At National Geographic we believe in the awesome power of science, exploration, and storytelling. In these books we hope kids will find whatever excites them about our planet: fascinating facts, fun photos, awesome history, stimulating STEM, amazing animals, or just a good story.

Thanks for your support and happy reading.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS ULTIMATE DINOPEDIA, SECOND EDITION

Dinosaurs continue to fascinate kids, and although these amazing creatures roamed the Earth ages ago, new dinosaur discoveries are still being made today! The new edition of the popular Nat Geo Kids Ultimate Dinopedia includes all the latest species and is the most complete, up-to-date dinosaur reference available. Find favorites, like the fierce T. rex and the gentle Brontosaurus, plus audacious new finds, like the Anzu, Kosmoceratops, and Yi. Every dino profile is colorfully illustrated and features descriptions of when they roamed the Earth, how they lived, what they ate, and more. There are more than 600 dinos featured in all, including profiles of recently discovered dinosaurs and new entries in the Dino Dictionary. Reports from paleontologists present the latest news and insights from the field.

“DINO” DON LESSEM has written more than 50 books on dinosaurs and other animals for children and adults. He led the construction of the largest dinosaur skeleton, Argentinosaurus, and the largest meat-eating dinosaur, Gigantosaurus. Lessem was adviser on the movie Jurassic Park and has hosted and written television documentaries. He creates museum exhibitions on dinosaurs and created the two largest charities for dinosaur research.

Artist FRANCO TEMPESTA specializes in naturalistic illustration with a specialty in realistic illustration of dinosaurs and primitive mammals. He taught illustration at the Palladio's Institute of Graphic Design in Verona, Italy. Tempesta is the 2016 recipient of the Lanzendorf Paleo Art Prize for 2-D art from the Society of Vertebrate Paleontology. He has illustrated several books for National Geographic Kids.

WEIRD BUT TRUE! CHRISTMAS

Even Christmas can be weird—it's true! Get ready to celebrate the holiday season with wacky facts, stats, tidbits, and traditions about the most wonderful time of the year. Did you know that Santa's reindeer are probably all female? Or that artificial snow can be made from seaweed? Or that "Jingle Bells" was the first Christmas carol sung in space? Every kid will ho ho ho when they unwrap this fun and festive little gift book, perfect for stocking stuffers or under the tree.

PENGUINS VS PUFFINS

Get ready for an epic battle of ultimate cuteness. In one corner, there's Team Penguin. In the other, Team Puffin! Which team will you be rooting for in this hilarious and adorable smackdown? Tune in to the sports match, complete with cheeky animal commentators, as penguins and puffins square off for quirky superlatives such as Most Graceful (sure you don't mean most awkward?), Highest Flier (oops, penguins can't fly! I guess they lose this round!), Scariest Arch Nemesis (hint: don't ever say "gull" to a puffin!), Most Photogenic, Biggest Science Magnet—and that's just the tip of the iceberg!

HEY, BABY!

A Collection of Pictures, Poems, and Stories From Nature's Nursery

Sweet dreams are made of this! Join National Geographic Kids on a trip around the globe to celebrate nature's nursery. Get up close to adorable baby animals—from the teensiest turtle hatchling to the biggest baby whales; from black bear cubs frolicking free in the Rocky Mountains to a kangaroo joey lounging safely in its mother's pouch. Readers will ooh and aah over the cute baby pictures, sweet stories, folktales, and poems in this lovely keepsake book. Ideal for sharing with sleepy little ones, it's a natural gift for young readers, new parents, and moms-to-be.

HOW THINGS WORK: INSIDE OUT!

Discover Secrets and Science Behind Trick Candles, 3-D Printers, Penguin Propulsion, and Everything in Between

How does auto-correct fix our typos? Why is it so hard to blow out trick candles? What makes that mechanical drinking bird keep going back for another sip? If you've ever wondered how things work and wanted to take apart the toaster or the camera to look inside, this book is for you! Join in the fun as we explore and explain how all kinds of things around us do what they do. Complete with exciting diagrams and illustrations, accessible explanations, trivia, and fun features, this book reveals the inner workings of cell phones, 3-D printers, lava lamps, skyscrapers, and many more things in between!

TRY THIS! EXTREME

50 Fun & Safe Experiments for the Mad Scientist in You

Science can be extreme! Let curious kids discover it for themselves in this fascinating book of hands-on science experiments that takes interactivity to a whole new level. Weird, wacky science facts and basic principles are explained as a first step to launching these creative (and safe) science projects. Dynamic photos and art clearly highlight each step so kids can conduct experiments with confidence and accuracy. Projects involve familiar subjects like force and motion and temperature and freezing points, and most experiments are based on materials easily found at home. Bonus projects throughout encourage curious kids to dig deeper and discover more!

KAREN ROMANO YOUNG has written numerous books for children, including the National Geographic Kids Science Fair Winner Series and the first National Geographic Kids Try This! (below), with a completely different set of 50 experiments. Before beginning to write her own science books, she worked at Scholastic News, the classroom magazine. Young has also written about science for magazines such as Cricket, National Geographic World, and the Guinness Book of World Records.

1,000 FACTS ABOUT THE WHITE HOUSE

On the heels of a high-profile election and in the midst of an inauguration year, no house is more in the spotlight than the president's residence at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. Now, in consultation with the White House Historical Association, National Geographic takes kids behind the scenes to explore the people, the grounds, the home, and the history of the White House.

Go behind the scenes to get a 360-degree view of America's most famous residence, from how it was built in 1792 and the fire of 1812 to today's state dinners, celebrations, celebrity pets, and more. Discover, through 1,000 fun-to-read facts, what it's like to live and work at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue and all about its history, inhabitants, and key events. Learn the quirky rules of the house and how the Secret Service keeps it safe. Explore the grounds to see how the residence operates and read mouthwatering facts about food from the president's kitchen. Find out how the kids who have lived there play, watch movies, and entertain friends. With a treasure trove of material from the White House Historical Association, this book presents a fascinating story of the building and the many people who have shaped its 225-year history.

THE WORLD OF THE BIBLE

Biblical Stories and the Archaeology Behind Them

Travel back to ancient times to revisit classic Bible stories from the Old and New Testaments. Learn fascinating facts about biblical history, then explore that same landscape as archaeologists are studying it today. Unearth clues about where these stories took place and how people in that time period might have lived. Stories include the Garden of Eden, Joseph in Egypt, Moses and the Ten Commandments, the birth of Jesus, Paul's conversion, and many more. Classic paintings and photos of the Middle East today enrich the archaeological explanations. Kids don't just revisit classic Bible stories in this book ... they'll dig deeper into the history behind the tales to learn more about the biblical world.

JILL RUBALCABA is the author of more than 12 books of nonfiction and fiction for children and young adults, including National Geographic's Ancient Egypt: Archaeology Unlocks the Secrets of Egypt's Past; The Early Human World, and Every Bone Tells a Story. The biography I.M. Pei: Architect of Time, Place, and Purpose, published in 2011, was among Booklist's Top 10 Books for Youth and Kirkus's Best of 2011, and is a Junior Library Guild Selection.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS CHAPTERS

The National Geographic Kids Chapters series picks up where the best-selling National Geographic Kids Readers series leaves off. These books offer young animal and adventure-lovers short chapters filled with lively full-color stories that are ideal to share with friends or read at home or school. Plus, the kid-friendly format is just right to carry in a backpack. Each National Geographic Kids Chapter book features three stories, each with three chapters, sprinkled with weird-but-true facts, plus exciting and engaging photographs.

MY BEST FRIEND IS A DOLPHIN!

And More True Dolphin Stories

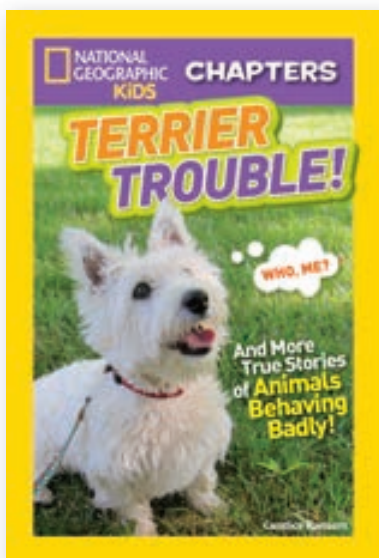

This chapter book is sure to make a splash! Find fun, funny, and TRUE stories of heroic and talented dolphins and amazing dolphin friendships. It's perfect for budding bookworms and animal-lovers alike.

MOIRA ROSE DONOHUE is a former lawyer, children's writer, and the self-proclaimed "Queen of Punctuation." She loves dogs, tap dancing, and old movies. Moira's publishing credits include poems, plays, and 15 books for children, including National Geographic Kids Chapter books Parrot Genius, Kangaroo to the Rescue, and Living With Wolves.

TERRIER TROUBLE!

And More True Stories of Animals Behaving Badly

Meet a thieving emu, a devious cat, and a pesky pup in these hilarious tales about animals who love to play tricks, create chaos, and run a bit wild. Funny, colorful, portable, and collectible, these books are heartwarming page-turners that will leave eager readers ready for more. They're perfect for the backpack, to share with friends, and to read under the covers.

CANDICE RANSOM is the author of more than 130 books for children and young adults. In the summer, she teaches children's literature at Hollins University. The rest of the year she writes books! She and her husband live in Virginia, with their cat, Atticus, aka the Worst Cat in the World. But they love him anyway and hope one day he will learn to behave better.

HOLIDAYS AROUND THE WORLD

Dazzling photographs and lively text introduce children to a varied selection of religious and cultural holidays, presented from a global perspective. A consultant's note to parents and teachers places the holiday in its religious and cultural context, complementing the brief, informative text of each title. Kids will learn the basics about each holiday, along with fascinating games, maps, songs, recipes, and further resources.

HOW TO ACE THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC BEE, OFFICIAL STUDY GUIDE, FIFTH EDITION

The National Geographic Bee is a local, state, and national academic contest for students in grades four through eight. The competition culminates in a finals face-off, broadcast live on National Geographic Television. This is the ultimate guide for gearing up for the events. Like the Bee, the guide has expanded its range of material to include social studies, earth and space science, the environment, and culture. Of course, geography is at its core, and the guide features the latest country and geographic statistics; selected new question rounds; updated resources; new tips from past winners; and a brand new country index full of vital stats. It's the perfect resource to help millions of school kids prepare to compete in the Bee. It's also a fun and helpful resource for trivia buffs, challenge seekers, and college-bound test-takers.

This entertaining series combines biography and history for intermediate and middle-grade students. Award-winning author/illustrator Cheryl Harness complements her trademark conversational narrative style with scores of detail-rich pen-and-ink drawings to create an enlightening 300-year journey through American history. Painstakingly researched, each volume draws on primary sources, bringing history alive in a fresh, fun way. Illustrated maps and a running time line of global events place each subject in the context of world history.

This five-book series focuses on documents that formed the cornerstone of American democracy. Each book takes an in-depth look at the creation and working history of the key documents that together set the guidelines for how government works in the United States. Full texts of these and other historic documents are included.

Let the experts at National Geographic take you out of the library, out of the zoo, and into the wild! Go behind the scenes with the people who research and photograph wild animals for National Geographic magazine. This series puts you right in the action: "Tips from the experts" offer practical advice; a "facts at a glance" reference section puts information at your fingertips; while an extensive glossary and a "find out more" section encourage active reader participation.
