Gumiho

Wicked Fox
KAT CHO

Eighteen-year-old Gu Miyoung has a secret—she’s a gumiho, a nine-tailed fox who must devour the energy of men in order to survive. Because so few believe in the old tales anymore, and with so many evil men no one will miss, the modern city of Seoul is the perfect place to hide and hunt.

But after feeding one full moon, Miyoung crosses paths with Jihoon, a human boy being attacked by a goblin deep in the forest. Against her better judgment, she violates the rules of survival to rescue the boy, losing her fox bead—her gumiho soul—in the process.

With murderous forces lurking in the background, Miyoung and Jihoon develop a tenuous friendship that blossoms into something more. But when a young shaman tries to reunite Miyoung with her bead, the consequences are disastrous and reignite a generations-old feud . . . forcing Miyoung to choose between her immortal life and Jihoon’s.

KAT CHO used to hide books under the bathroom sink and then sneak in there to read after bedtime. Her parents pretended not to know. This helped when she decided to write a dinosaur time-travel novel at the tender age of nine. Sadly, that book was not published. She currently lives and works in NYC and spends her free time trying to figure out what kind of puppy to adopt.

New from Three Master Storytellers

Inland

TÉA OBREHT

The New York Times bestselling author of The Tiger's Wife returns with a stunning tale of perseverance that follows an epic journey across an unforgettable landscape of magic and myth. Mythical, lyrical, and sweeping in scope, Inland is grounded in true but little-known history. It showcases all of Téa Obreht's talents as a writer, as she subverts and reimagines the myths of the American West, making them entirely—and unforgettably—her own.

"[Téa Obreht] has a talent for subtle plotting that eludes most writers twice her age, and her descriptive powers suggest a kind of channeled genius."

MARGARET ATWOOD, whose work has been published in more than forty-five countries, is the Booker Award-winning author of more than fifty books of fiction, poetry, critical essays, and graphic novels.

A Stunning New Graphic Novel from R. J. Palacio

LEAD
TITLE

White Bird: A Wonder Story

R. J. PALACIO

Inspired by Wonder, R. J. Palacio makes her graphic novel debut with an unforgettable story of the power of kindness in a time of war. White Bird tells Julian's Grandmère's story: how she, a young Jewish girl, was hidden by a family in a Nazi-occupied French village during WWII; how the boy she and her classmates once shunned became her savior and best friend.

R. J. PALACIO lives in New York City with her husband, two sons, and two dogs. For more than twenty years, she was an art director and graphic designer, designing book jackets for other people while waiting for the perfect time in her life to start writing her own novel. But one day several years ago, a chance encounter with an extraordinary child in front of an ice cream store made R. J. realize that the perfect time to write that novel had finally come.

Celebrating 50 Years of Sesame Street!

Sunny Day: A Celebration of Sesame Street

Lyrics by JOE RAPOSO; Illustrated by Various

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of Sesame Street, beloved picture book artists have created original pieces interpreting lines from “Sunny Day,” the iconic Sesame Street theme song. The range of their pieces demonstrates that Sesame Street can truly be found anywhere!

JOE RAPOSO (1937–1989) began playing piano as a child, and later studied piano with the great Nadia Boulanger in Paris. A serendipitous meeting with Jim Henson in the 1960s led Raposo to join the team behind the creation of Sesame Street, for which he served as musical director for several years. He wrote more than two thousand songs for Sesame Street, earning three Emmys for his work on the show.
