

The first Magic Tree House book was published in 1992—introducing the world to Jack and Annie, a brother and sister who discover a magical tree house filled with books. In Dinosaurs Before Dark, the tree house takes them on their first journey, an adventure in prehistoric times. Since then, the magic tree house has whisked Jack and Annie—and lucky readers!—on many more adventures through time to different places around the world.

“You have no idea what a new book means to a child that has nothing. I have over half of my second grade students reading at a Pre-Kindergarten level. Reading is a struggle and a chore for most students who come to school hungry and don’t understand how valuable reading can be. As a teacher with severe dyslexia, I am a firm believer in giving a child a book that excites and engages them. I REMEMBER reading my first MTH book and falling in love. There is a magic in these books... What will I do with these gracious donated books? I will expand, engage and excite learning in every space of my room. I enjoy finding out what my students want to learn and engaging them with answers. I firmly believe in giving a child a book and letting them build confidence holding that book and learning to take pride in learning its context. I love your lessons on this website as well. I want to thank you again for providing this opportunity. I wish you could see the faces on my children when they are given books. I feel that as a teacher seeing literacy transformed in the mind of a child is the greatest joy anyone can experience. Thank you again.”
